

BISCUIT JOINER SAFETY TEST #27

Name: _____ Score: _____ Term: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Fill in the blank with the best proper word that will complete the question. If it asks to explain do so as completely and accurately as possible.

(Introduction to Biscuit Joinery ----- Making the Basic Biscuit Joints)

- 1-2. _____ work like splines and dowels as they help to line up adjoining surfaces and since the biscuits _____ inside the slots, they help to reduce clamping time.
3. Use the _____ biscuit that the pieces you are joining will permit.
- 4-6. Joining biscuits are very _____, and they will save you a lot of time because they are _____ than, and at least as _____ as mortise and tenon joints, doweling, tongue and groove, or standard spline joints.
7. The tool has two basic adjustments. One for the _____ of the cut and the other for the _____ of the cut.
9. Always _____ work piece.
10. By loosening the _____ on both sides of the fence you can adjust the vertical movement of the fence to center it or otherwise position it to where you want to make the slot.
11. The _____ indicator lines on the front of the fence and the front of the base plate are used to align and position the center of the blade with the layout lines drawn on the mating pieces of wood.
12. Generally _____ biscuit is sufficient for $\frac{3}{4}$ " stock.
13. It is often a good idea to use two biscuits for _____ stock and more for thicker boards.
14. When gluing table tops or cutting boards or similar edge to edge projects, the more biscuits you use, the _____ the joint will be.
15. Accurate _____ is the key to accurate work.